Job Details

NFT Artist

We are looking for an NFT Artist for manga themed project. If you are someone who thrives in an exciting and new industry where being self-directed, determined, and resilient are a requirement and where creativity flourishes, we would love for you to join us. The role is 100% remote and highly collaborative.

About us:

BeInCrypto is a news website founded in August 2018 that specializes in cryptographic technology, privacy, fintech, and the Internet — among other related topics. The primary goal of our website is to inject transparency into an industry rife with disingenuous reporting, unlabeled sponsored articles, and paid news masquerading as honest journalism.

The role:

You will be responsible for making world-class creative work, conceptualizing, producing, and launching NFT projects. You will also be responsible for creating content and collateral for all marketing touchpoints.

Requirements & skills:

- An understanding of crypto art and NFT culture.
- Min. 6 months of experience designing NFTs.
- Passion for digital storytelling.
- Understands the intersection of culture and technology.
- Hands-on with all the tools and techniques needed to create NFTs.
- Previous experience or familiarity with NFT projects.
- Interest and experience in creating manga genre illustrations.

Responsibilities:

- Creating character design with wearables, rarity assets, and environments.
- Work closely with marketing and design team on conceptualization and execution of NFT design.
- Designing digital assets related to the project for web, social media, and newsletter.

We offer:

- Remote only and full-time work available.
- Join a stellar team of talents from all over the world and learn from them.
- Great work environment, where everyone's opinion is welcome and valued.
- Unique opportunity to take part in the emergence of a future leader in bitcoin news coverage.

NFT Artist Lead

Job description

ABOUT AVANT ARTE

Avant Arte wants to make art radically more accessible for a new generation. The company began as a cult blog of contemporary artists and grew organically into the world's largest and most engaged online art community, with more than 2 million of their followers under the age of 35. Avant Arte's vision is to inspire a generation of millions of young people who love art like they love music and who collect works like they build their wardrobe.

The company collaborates with iconic contemporary artists like Jenny Holzer, Cai Guo-Qiang, Claire Tabouret and Hank Willis Thomas, making their work more accessible to younger collectors through sculpture editions, print editions and unique works on paper of exceptional quality. And they have built a highly engaged community of next-generation art collectors, which means Avant Arte's artist launches are heavily oversubscribed, with many behaving more like fashion drops, selling out in under 30 seconds.

More recently, we've loved witnessing the new wave of artists that have been empowered by web3 and NFTs. The technology has enormous potential to create new and rich art & collecting experiences that contribute to our mission. As such, we've recently added the ability to launch works on-chain to our offering, allowing us to collaborate with leading creators from traditional contemporary and digitally-native backgrounds across any medium, be it digital or physical.

We're currently a team of 85, split between London and Amsterdam, looking to scale to more than 100 over the next 6 months. This is a great opportunity to join a highly successful, profitable, early-stage business at a pivotal moment in our growth, where you will have a big impact from day one.

OUR CULTURE

We're a small team with really big ambitions, both for what we want to achieve and also the environment we're building. We want to create a company that remains thoughtful as we scale and tries to be genuinely progressive in how we operate; we want people to really own what they do and be given the autonomy and freedom to make mistakes, learn, and create something meaningful. We all work incredibly hard because we really care about what Avant Arte is here to do – we're looking for exceptional people who are proactive, hungry to learn, and want to put their pride in our collective achievements.

We know that creating an inclusive environment that promotes and values diversity is critical if we want to build something with impact and meaning. We believe that having diversity in age, background, gender identity, race, sexual orientation, physical or mental ability, ethnicity, and perspective will make us an infinitely better company. And it is particularly vital if we are going to build a roster of artists and a community of collectors that are representative of contemporary art and of the wider world today.

Requirements

WHAT WE NEED

We're looking for a highly motivated NFT Artist Lead to help the business curate and develop an outstanding programme of on-chain works. The Artist Lead role will be responsible for outreaching to new artists and producing new releases in collaboration with our artists, in line with our wider curatorial strategy.

We really do encourage everyone to proactively step outside of their job description if they see something that could be improved but the core of your role will involve:

Artist acquisition

- Act as the first point of contact for artists releasing works on chain
- Research and identify new artists for collaborations with Avant Arte
- Manage relationships with our community of artists, co-ordinating outreach efforts and introduction calls

Collaborate closely with artists and their teams to scope an exciting programme of projects which include digital and/or IRL components

Creative production

- Liaising with our in-house production team to bring scoped projects to life
- Creating and managing a diverse calendar of Avant Arte on-chain releases, taking into consideration different artist practices, mediums, geographies, ethnicities and gender identity amongst many other things

Artist community

- Build strong relationships with our artist community and stay on top of emerging on-chain art trends and themes, acting as an in-house thought leader for artist programming
- Use artist knowledge to help the Avant Arte content team generate and publish original, creative content across social platforms that speaks to Avant Arte's mission, artist approach and on-chain programme
- Translate artist curation and programming into meaningful themes for the marketing and content themes to align around

Graphic Designer

Graphic Designer

APPLY FOR THIS JOB

REMOTE / CONTENT / REMOTE

Collective is a web3 social platform for NFT communities to empower their members. We make it easy for NFT owners with shared interests to foster genuine connections and support each other through contributions to communities they love.

We first launched as MomentRanks in February 2021, and saw over 150,000 monthly active users within a year. We're backed by some of the best VCs in the crypto space and are growing incredibly fast. We recently rebranded to Collective (collective.xyz) to shift our focus to empowering NFT communities.

At Collective, we believe that it is essential to elevate all perspectives in the Web3 space so we can make it accessible to everyone. We are dedicated to equal employment opportunities regardless of race, color, ancestry, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, age, citizenship, marital status, disability, gender identity, or Veteran status.

The Basics

We're seeking a Graphic Designer who will create original graphic content for Collective's social channels that aligns with our brand vision. The Graphic Designer will have the experience that equips them with the storytelling and social media skills to effortlessly translate all of our content to speak to our audiences across social channels, blogs, video, and other public facing platforms. You will work directly with the Lead of Content to grow our presence, establish a loyal audience, and extend our reputation as the home for NFT communities.

The ideal candidate thrives working independently, has enthusiasm for audience development, NFTs and Web3, and has exceptional organization, communication, and collaboration skills. Additionally, this candidate is creative-minded and has some experience developing brand identity.

We are open to hiring a full-time or part-time graphic designer, depending on your experience and availability.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with the Lead of Content to conceptualize, create, and manage social content across Collective's social platforms
- Create videos, graphics, images, animations, illustrations, and other visuals for social/marketing needs
- Maintain a consistent visual identity across Collective's social channels
- Responsible for production of projects to adhere to deadlines/quick turnarounds
- Contribute to brainstorm meetings to aid both marketing and creative strategies and ideation
- Troubleshooting creative problems and other issues in the production pipeline
- Channel our voice with digestible graphics that drives social media conversation using best practices
